Join Nebraska Cattlemen Past President Dave Bruntz and his wife Ann to Ireland August 4-13. Your tour will include the best of Ireland and highlight Blarney and Trim Castles. The first is famous for the Blarney Stone and the second is famous for the movie "Braveheart."

There will be great food and drink, shopping and live music. Three agriculture stops are included: the National Stud Farm, the Irish Cattle Breeding Federation, and the Animal and Grassland Research and Innovation Center. You'll experience the sights and sounds of Dublin, as well as the hospitality of the Irish in regional towns such as Waterford, Cork, Killarney and Galway, and the live music, three-pub village of Doolin. You'll stay at wonderful 4-star hotels and one Bed & Breakfast, a true Irish experience.

Your price includes airfare from Omaha; accommodations; eight full Irish breakfasts, six lunches including the Guinness Storehouse, and four dinners; services of a local tour manager; all transportation; and admission for included sightseeing, agriculture stops, and plenty of tastings (whiskey, scones, beer).

Price: $4,590*per person, double occupancy
